VOL. III. NO. 122.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, MAY 22, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

KINGS COUNSEL'S SEVENTH.

It was a raw chilly afternoon yesterday and a small crowd of regulars only went to Ingalls Park. The English colt King's Counsel won the afternoon's star piece, a six and one-half furlongs allowance race, beating the Foster Bros' derby colt Dr. Sheppard. The latter ran a grand race and the winner clipped a quarter of a second off the Illinois state record. If King's Counsel's legs were as good as his general appearance he would be a prize. As it is the colt has started eight times this year and won seven races. He was a high priced yearling bought cheap at the Smith sale at Milwaukee in 1896.

The performance of Foster's Dorian in the mile race was a shocking one. Dorian, on paper, looked to have an excellent chance to win, and in the opening betting was installed favorite at 8 to 5, but before post time 4 to 1 could be had about him. In the race Dorian was as dull as the market about him, and finished a distant fifth. Babe Murphy, backed from 2 to 1 to 7 to 5, won the race rather handily from Doctor G.

Old Floreanna, after a much needed rest, made her appearance in the first race, winning quite handily from the favorite, Percy. Floreanna was at some stages of the betting as good as 40 to 1.

Presbyterian, from W. M. Singler's stable, won the two-year-old race, and Siegfried, perfectly ridden by Bloss, scored in the final event.

Tully Coulter and B. J. Johnston were at the track. Both ship their horses here today.

Some fiendish person broke into Ruddy Bros. stable Thursday night and cut the tails off all the two-year-olds.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Turf Congress is reinstating quite a few of the outlawed jockeys. Bloss, riding for Cella & Sippy at Ingalls' Park, is one of the regenerated. Patton, a good boy, who has been riding at the Virginia tracks, has been reinstated and is here to ride for Mr. Rogers of the Elkton Stock Farm.

P. J. Dwyer expresses his willingness to run Handspring a mile on Wednesday next against Requitall, Hastings, Voter, or anybody else that cares to come in at $250 a corner and $1,000 to the winner donated by the Westchester Racing Association.

The Eastern racing firm of F. R. & T. Hitchcock, high of class and leaning toward jumpers, offered Andy Blakely some $4,000 for his young giant Snowdown, a possible champion of the fencing side of racing. The offer was declined.

Mr. Richard Croker's filly Rhoda by Hanover—Margarine won a stake at Newmarket a few days ago and is rated as an extra good youngster. The next day Keenan scored for the ex-Tammany boss.

The Jockey Club has concluded the negotiations whereby it becomes the owner of the Stud Book. Col. S. D. Bruce received $35,000 for his property, and there will be no suits at law over the matter.

The Boots stable is on its way East, headed by The Roman and Installator. The Roman is highly rated by horsemen. Pat Dunne offered some $4,000 for the colt before he had won a race.

The New York Mercury says: "Marplot and Surmount have been taken West, and will presumably race out there the balance of the season."

Pat Dunne goes East at once with a select stable. Preston will come to Ingalls' Park and race in Mr. Leigh's stable.

Harry O'Fallon, by Australian, the sire of Terra Cotta, Marion C, etc., died at Lexington, Ky., last week.
